Alumnae In The Spotlight

Mrs. Barbara Yetman our Director of Guidance at Villa arranged for Bettina Villegas '19, Catherine Harbison '19, and Brittney Visser '19 to speak with our students about life as a college freshman, adjusting to being away from home, and about the college application process.

Bettina is attending The University of Notre Dame, majoring in Neuroscience. Bettina shared her experiences with students of her life at Notre Dame, why she chose her school, what classes are like, and what is helping her to succeed.

Catherine is attending Fairfield University, majoring in Social Work. Catherine added some tips on getting involved on campus, making the choice between two great universities and what her classes are like, and and getting involved in campus clubs and activities.

Brittney is attending the University of Pittsburgh, majoring in Neuroscience. Brittney shared with our students advice on the importance of networking with fellow classmates, and connecting with her Professors via office hours. She is currently working as a research assistant in the xxxx.

All the girls stressed the importance of working with Mrs. Barbara Yetman, Director of Guidance as well as gratitude for all her help during the application process.

Thank you Bettina, Catherine, and Brittney for coming home to Villa and sharing your story.
