Alumnae E-News Volume 101 December 2023

Villa Grad voted College Athlete of the Week

Giavanna Cucaresse '21, a junior at University of New Haven, was voted Player of the Game (9/11/23)
and Athlete of the Week.

She scored two "tries" for her rugby team
and tore up the field defensively. Good job Gia!

Villa's Mock Trial Team is Back- We need your help!

Villa Victoria Academy is restarting its Mock Trial Team!
We are looking for alumnae or parents of alumnae who have trial attorney/litigation experience
and are interested in working with the team
on courtroom procedures such as questioning witnesses
and how to make objections.

The Mercer County Mock Trial Tournament
is scheduled for early February.
We would like to have a volunteer who can meet with our team (10-12 students) either in person, (or if need be in a virtual setting) at least 2-4 times
between December and the beginning of February.

Anyone who is interested please contact the Villa club moderator
Mr. Peter Kraus by December 8th.

Villa's Student Photo Contest- We need your help!

Villa Victoria Academy needs two additional judges for our annual student photo contest.

The work is virtual and takes just a few hours of work in the spring.

If you are a VVA graduate or a parent of a VVA graduate and have a background
in the fine arts, photography, or videography

we would love to hear from you!

Anyone who is interested please contact Colleen White.
by December 30th.

Yearbooks!

Calling the Classes of 2020, 2021, 2022 and 2023

Did you pick up your senior yearbook?
Please contact the Development Office here
if you need to make arrangements for pick up!
